Pure Euphoria: Soups, Songs, Stories & Pots
A post-fire benefit for the West Cummington Congregational Church

Haydenville, MA: Bread Euphoria presents on Monday, March 22, from 6-8 PM: Pure Euphoria: Soups, Songs, Stories & Pots.

This is a one time, wild time benefit at the Bread Euphoria Cafe in Haydenville for the church in West Cummington whose building burned to the ground on January 17. Everyone, living anywhere, is cordially invited to the party. Kids included!

We will have soups, breads, salads and cookies. We will have four extraordinary storytellers: Rochelle Wildfong, Stephen Philbrick, Penny Schultz and Gene Flores, music from the Karen Simon-Bob Lovell Duo and the Prism Chamber Singers and pottery to raffle from the Hilltown Six (now 8): Robbie Heidinger, Nakayama Hiroshi, Christy Knox, Michael McCarthy, Mark Shapiro, Eric Smith, Connie Talbot & Sam Taylor plus Andrew Quient and Maya Machin.

The food will be free. We will pass the hat (actually, several hats) for the burned-down church. (Cash and checks only, please.) Raffle tickets ($1 each) will be on sale in advance at the Bread Euphoria Cafe, on Main Street in Haydenville (Route 9), just over the Northampton line, and at the Old Creamery Grocery on Route 9 in Cummington. Raffle tickets will also be sold at the March 22 event.
